

PIAGGIO AEROSPACE – COOKIE POLICY

Last revised: April 15th, 2026

Piaggio Aerospace, including all its business segments, divisions, and subsidiaries (“Piaggio Aerospace”, “we”, “us”, or “our”), uses cookies to store your internet settings and browsing preferences. This helps us optimize the design and functionality of our websites and enhance your online experience. We may also use third-party cookies for advertising, social media plugins, and website traffic analysis.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They allow the website to remember information about your visit—such as your preferred language, location, or the pages you view—so that your device is recognized when you return. Cookies are also used for web analytics.

Types of Cookies

We classify cookies into four categories based on their function and purpose:

1. Technical Cookies

These cookies are essential for our websites to operate correctly. Without them, you would not be able to navigate the website or access basic functions.

2. Statistics Cookies

These cookies collect information about how you use our websites. We use analytics tools, including Google Analytics and Hotjar, to collect, analyze, and report aggregated data such as browser type, operating system, page visits, number of visits, and average visit duration. These cookies do not collect data that directly identifies you.

3. Preferences Cookies

These cookies store information you have previously provided (e.g., language selection or location) to personalize your experience when you return. They collect anonymous data and do not track your activity on other websites.

4. Marketing Cookies

These cookies record your activity on our websites to deliver personalized advertising on other platforms such as Google and Bing. For this purpose, we use Google Ads Remarketing and Bing Ads. Trusted advertising partners may set cookies to build a profile of your interests based on your browsing activity, information requests, or purchases. These cookies also help limit how often you see an advertisement and measure the effectiveness of our campaigns.

Our websites may include third-party advertisements, links, and social media plugins. Social plugins allow you to share content through platforms such as X, LinkedIn, YouTube, Instagram, Facebook and NSosyal. When using these plugins, social media platforms may set their own cookies on your device. Although these cookies do not store personal information, they uniquely identify your browser and device. When combined with other data collected by advertising partners or social media providers, this information may be used to identify you.

How to Select the Cookies We Use

Details about the cookies used on our website can be found in the Cookie Settings section of our cookie banner.

Cookie Settings

Necessary cookies are always active to ensure the website functions properly. Statistics, preference, and marketing cookies will only be activated with your consent. By default, these optional cookies are switched off. You can choose to enable any category of cookies—or accept all—through the Cookie Settings section. You may revise your preferences at any time by clicking the “Cookies” link on our website.

Cookies Management

Depending on your browser type, you can manage cookies using the following links:

Internet Explorer: <http://windows.microsoft.com/it-it/windows-vista/block-or-allow-cookies>
